British and Indian Interests in Enemy Countries

The following note issued by the Foreign Office regarding representation of British (including Dominion) interests in enemy and enemy-occupied territories is republished for general information.

"The German Government have agreed to the Swiss Government representing British, including Dominion, interests in Germany, the Protectorate of Bohemia, Moravia, the General Government of Poland and Territories occupied by German troops.

"The Italian Government have agreed similarly as regards Italy, Dalmatia, the Province of Ljublana and Albania.

"As regards Greece and Italian occupied territory in Yugoslavia, other than Dalmatia and Ljublana the Italian Government recognise representation by Switzerland de facto but have withheld official approval.

"The above is subject to confirmation (a) as regards Albania and (b) as regards Dominion interests.

"The Roumanian, Hungarian and Bulgarian Governments have agreed similarly as regards Roumania, Hungary and Bulgaria.

"The United States Government remain in charge of British, including Dominion interests in Finland, unoccupied France, Algeria, French Morocco, Tunis, French West Indies, French West Africa and Madagascar.

"Far East.- (i) The Japanese Government have agreed to the representation by the Argentine Government of British, other than South African interests in Japan.

"(ii) They have agreed to representation by the Swiss Government of South African interests in Japan.

"(iii) The Japanese Government have agreed to the representation by the Swiss Government of British, including Dominion, interests in occupied China.

"(iv) The Thai Government have agreed as in (iii) above as regards Thailand.

"(v) The Vichy Government have agreed as in (iii) above as regards Indo-China.

"(vi) The Japanese Government have refused to allow Allied interests to be represented in Hongkong and the Phillippines.

"(vii) The question of making arrangements for the representation by the Swiss Government of British interests in Manchuria is under consideration.

"The Swiss Government are understood to be in charge of British, including Dominion, interests in Denmark, but confirmation is awaited that the Danish Government agree to this. It may however be difficult to obtain express confirmation, although the Swiss Government may still be able to act on a de facto basis.

"As regards Slovakia it is unlikely that any arrangements can be made owing to the absence of neutral diplomatic or consular representatives."
